

- 5.10.5 Should be available to those under their command. However, they should allow them sufficient independence to carry out their specific role, in accordance with the strategy and tactical plan; and
- 5.10.6 Should record decisions taken to ensure a clear audit trail exists.

The Tactical Adviser

- 5.11 From an early stage of Operation Tayport, a Senior Tactical Adviser provided Silver with tactical options and advice. Initially it was CI John Terry. E1 'double hatted' from 29th April as Bronze Commander and the 'on the ground' Tactical Adviser. In April 2005 this form of 'double hatting' was not unusual in the MPS; subsequently such roles have been separated.
