

This image shows the students in pairs covering into the side windows of the vehicle once the windows have been smashed, note the life hammer retained on the students wrist by a tailor made elasticated lanyard.